

...Rainbowman...

The man who never makes mistakes
He always tells the truth
Industrial business makes all silly
The time goes lonely and blue

Letterman was our god
TV changed the blue ball
Truth has been the greatest enemy
A living timebomb destroyed the wall

Chorus:

The man who spoke to the rainbow
He died at 1945
The man who spoke to the rainbow
He died to rescue our lives

Fifty years later
The countdown run away
The nuclear bomb
Was the winner of the fight

Waste is the sign
For the lost world
The rainbowman
Was the sunlight

Chorus:

The man who spoke to the rainbow
He died at 1945
The man who spoke to the rainbow
He died to rescue our lives
