

...Runaway...

There was a girl called Evelyn
She has been sweet seventeen
When she wanted to be free
When she wanted to flee

So she took her mother's car
And she wanted to get so far
Run away - so far away

Now Evelyn was all alone
Without money and without home
A little girl in a world of hate
No way back, it is too late

Chorus:

Run away - Evelyn
Up and away - Evelyn

She came to a little town
Walked the streets up and down
She walked and walked without an aim
She wanted to get back again
